

BEAUTY CHATS - By EDNA KENT FORBES

The Shrewd Type.

THE girl whose photograph I've used today, belongs to a very interesting and very likeable type. She is the shrewd type—the sort who is always intelligent no matter how limited her education has been, and who is always interesting to others because she is always interested in others. She is really a very delightful sort of person, but she has more pitfalls to be careful of than any other sort of girl.

Her greatest danger is that she will let her shrewdness become sharpness. Her observations on people are usually rather keen and full of common sense, but she is apt to go to extremes; and while perfectly capable of seeing other people's faults, she is apt to magnify the faults to the exclusion of the virtues.

She is quite capable of taking care of herself this shrewd girl—and that again, is one of her dangers. Being so capable of taking care of herself she is apt to flout her independence, and ever the most reasonable of men will resent too much of that. In other words, she is apt to lose—rather, to sacrifice—feminine softness and charm in an independence that is desirable but not always becoming.

I do not mean that the independent type of girl is undesirable, for she is always bright and wide-awake and always interesting. All I mean is that she should recognize the dangers she is apt to encounter and learn herself as pleasantly feminine as possible.

In this office Frank W. Woolworth put in the final years of work in his greatest achievement—his "chain" of stores that numbered 108 at the time of his death in 1919

Can you accomplish more by ceaselessly driving—?

Woolworth answered this question when he furnished this spacious office

STARTING at scratch, without resources or backing, Frank W. Woolworth built one of the world's largest retail store organizations and the world's tallest building. His final creative work on his "chain" of over a thousand stores was done from an office in his own towering sky-scraper, where today Hubert T. Parson is carrying on the enterprise of the great leader.

The office itself is just as Woolworth left it—a spacious work-room filled with splendid objects of art. During brief moments of relaxation, these beautiful surroundings brought Woolworth the refreshment that he needed. Woolworth knew the value of relaxing momentarily. He knew that ceaseless driving does not bring the greatest results.

All the world's leaders have learned the secret of alternating work with frequent, brief moments of rest. In this way they save themselves from break-down under long, tense hours of effort.

There are a dozen simple ways of getting this momentary relaxation.

A new way to snatch a moment of real relaxation

Most of us have noticed, for example, that just washing the hands is often wonderfully

YE TOWNE GOSSIP

By K. C. B.

(Registered U. S. Patent Office)

DEAR K. C. B.—Shame upon you! You steal into the McAdoo place on Sunday afternoon and find the lady of the house on a croquet court and come away and blazon it forth to the world! Shame upon you! Anna H.

MY DEAR ANNA—

AND I did see her.

ON A croquet court.

AND HOW I knew it.

WAS THAT there were wickets.

AND A couple of stakes.

AND I never said.

SHE WAS playing croquet.

FOR WITHOUT a mallet.

SHE COULDN'T play.

AND I saw no mallet.

AND I saw no balls.

HUT JUST the lady.

OF THE McAdoo house.

A GRACIOUS lady.

WITH A pleasant smile.

FOR A poor, strange man.

WHO HAD driven right in.

TO THE lady's yard.

WITHOUT BEING asked.

AND WAS made to feel.

THAT IT didn't matter.

AND WAS quite all right.

HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, JULY 22, 1920.

ALTHOUGH Jupiter rules this day kindly, Saturn, Uranus and the sun are all adverse.

It is a day under which business affairs that are carried on independently should prosper, but it is most unfortunate for those who must depend on banks or friends for assistance.

Uranus is in a place supposed to cause subtle fear and to retard enterprise.

One of the influences of this planetary government is to cause loss of self-confidence. This effect of sinister stars is likely to be encouraged by propaganda where political fortunes are in the balance.

Colleges and secondary schools come under a rule that promises much in educational attainment, but the coming year will not be a fortunate one for legacies or gifts.

Jupiter seems to promise a more liberal view where women are concerned, even marriage being subject to the growing gentleness of judgment.

Uranus is in an aspect supposed to inspire selfish and even cruel acts due to greed.

The signs read as forecasting increase of selfishness, seeming to be due, astrologers assert, to a prevalent lack of good manners, especially among the young.

It is not an auspicious day for making changes or for seeking favors of any sort.

Those who desire positions or need employment will meet with a prevailing lack of success in the coming year.

Transients may go through an especially discouraging period which will continue for several months, but many new devices will be needed in the future and prosperity is assured in 1921 to all who contribute to practical wants.

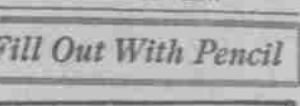

A waking of interest in literature and art is presaged for the coming winter, when some national movement that will appeal to the intellect is foreshadowed.

Persons whose birthdate it is should attend strictly to business in the coming year. Those who are employed should be very diligent.

Children born on this day may be too fond of pleasure to like work, but they are likely to be gifted and able to make success for themselves. Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

A Line O' Cheer
Each Day O' The Year
By JOHN KENDRICK BANGE.

AN EXPLANATION.

Why do I hold my hand so high, With flash of pride in either eye? Why do I walk with chest stuck out As if I had no doubt?

'Tis just because I am a MAN, And fashioned on a goodly plan, With brain alert and circumvent, And spine to hold myself erect.

And not a fish that swims the sea, Or slug that leaves 'neath a tree, Or beast that roams the jungle deep, Or any of the things that creep.

That's why I put on so much side, And walk my way so full of pride, Rejoicing that I've found my place, Moment an upstanding, thinking race.

Whatever You Do Don't Neglect Your Eyes, Says Dr. Lewis, Who

Tells How to Strengthen Eyesight 50% in One Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home

Philadelphia, Pa.—Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weakness? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. He says neglect causes more eye troubles and poor sight than any other one thing. Many whose eyes were failing say they had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me."

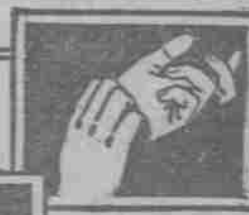

A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seemed clear. I can even read this print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitude more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye trouble of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Ben-Opto tablets. Drop one Ben-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two or four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

NOTE: Another prominent physician to whom the above article was submitted said: "Ben-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturer guarantees it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good druggist and is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." It is sold by all leading druggists including Cutler Drug Co.—Adv.

Never again have hangnails

THE most beautiful hands look hopelessly ugly if the nails are disfigured by hangnails. The famous specialist, Dr. Edmund Saalfeld, says that when the cuticle is allowed to grow up onto the surface of the nail, the skin will tear, become detached and form hangnails. To prevent hangnails, your whole effort should be to keep the cuticle unbroken.

Cutex removes the cuticle without cutting or clipping, leaves the skin at the base of the nail smooth and firm—unbroken.

Follow the manicuring directions under the illustrations. You will be surprised to find how charming one Cutex manicure makes your nails, how much it improves your hands. You can get Cutex in all drug and department stores. Cutex Cuticle Remover, Nail White, Nail Polish and Cold Cream are each 35 cents. The Cuticle Remover comes also in 65 cent bottles.
